

What do I do when my boyfriend is now my bra?

Last month, my boyfriend (19M), let's call him Dave, and I (18F) were in the Venn machine and after setting the machine to three days and going inside he tells me to turn him into sexy underwear. And I'm like "ew" but he says something like, "Just think. I could be hugging your tits while you're talking to your mother. She would just die." And it's true she would. She thinks all guys think of women as breeding units.

So I do as he says. I created a cute lacy lilac top and matching bottoms. And after I say are you ready he says hit me. I was nervous for the next minute waiting for the doors to open since he didn't respond when I talked. Finally the doors open and I go to the other side and there's the cutest bra and panties on the floor. I pick them up and some woman, I think it was a woman, she was kind of robot-looking, says, "Oh, you gotta go in the bathroom and put those on." So I do and they fit perfect. Never had a bra support the girls so good.

So the rest of the weekend I wore him and I have to say knowing he was wrapped around my girls when I spoke to my mother was indeed a trip. Eventually he turns back to normal and I thought that was the end of it.

I didn't see Dave for a couple days and he didn't answer his phone. I thought he ghosted me because of the underwear thing. Today, I opened a package that arrived by post. Inside is the exact same pair of underwear and a note. "Wear me for years, Dave." I confirmed from his friend "Chris" that Dave had Chris Venn him into the same underwear for three years.

What should I do?

Wear him. Seriously, where are you going to find a better bra? Guys come and go but a good bra you hold onto.

Exactly. I don't know how many former boyfriends would have been better off as my bra.

venn if I let him. Every Friday we go to diner and afterward we set the local machine to a two day venn. Sometimes he's a bra. Sometimes he's a dress. He also loves being shoes. When the kids were young, occasionally I'd turn him into a toy for them to play with. He doesn't care either way.

I hope you go out partying when he's your clothes. Hire a sitter and go out with your girlfriends. He probably would enjoy feeling you moving in whatever clothes he is than you just sitting around.

Oh, I do. He hates clubbing. We met at a venn machine and he was looking for someone who wanted a party dress. I volunteered to trust he would turn me into something. Every weekend we would hook up at the venn machine and he become my weekend party dress. After a couple months, I called him out of the blue during the week and invited him for a cup of coffee. We had so much more in common then we would have thought. That was two years ago. We're married. Have a baby boy. Life is good.

Keep talking to that Chris fellow. Maybe you can get him to be a nice green set. After all, his friend Dave digs it.

Hey, cool. I think I'm the robot OP saw outside the machine. You should have seen the smile on her face when she came out of the bathroom. Girl has a large chest and I bet she's never been custom fitted for a bra based on how much better she looked with a perfect fitting one.

I'm a guy. Even I understand that a fitted bra would better than one off the shelf but what do you mean by perfect fitting one

When you turn someone to clothing in a Venn Machine the clothing is cut to fit the person in the other chamber perfectly.

Tom, it sounds like you have some homework. You need to get someone to turn you into a woman while you turn them into a bra. Try it out, check out the fit for yourself.

You should have turned him into more than one bra. Can't wear the same bra everyday.

My mother's the same way. All men are evil according to her. OP, wear Dave in front of your mom for me!

My friend did the exact same thing. Gave himself as a gift to some chick. I ran into her a few months later and asked about him. She had no idea who I was talking about. She said she probably donated him to a church when she downsized her wardrobe.

Harsh. That's why they call it a Trust Machine.

Don't they usually put donated stuff into a Venn Machine before redistributing?

Larger charities all do it. But some smaller charities don't think about such things.

I've always been curious. When you turn someone into clothing, do they come with an incomprehensible care label?

↑ 3.2K ↓ Give Award Share Report Save Follow

u/throwaw246714 OP · 1 hours ago

I was real disappointed when there were no care instructions that first weekend. It looks like satin. But it feels even softer than satin. There's no underwire and yet the elastic holds its form better than anything I've ever worn. Like the machines, the cloth is practically magical.

Just wash it in the sink with other delicates. Should be safe. And Dave will probably enjoy the feel of being hand washed. It's your favorite bra: show it some love.

Sometimes. I think it depends on whether the person creating the clothing imagines the clothing with a tag. But yeah, the tag is always impossible to read.
