

What Movie Is This? (Solved)

Update: See below for answer.

I came across a clip lately that seems to be from some movie. The clip is only 3 minutes long, but it hints at a much longer production. The lead female character has no arms, and the man she spends much of her time with (who seems to be part of a gang) has no legs.

Does anybody recognize the movie? It may be softcore porn. Sample (SFW) stills are enclosed.

Somehow I don't think the lead actress is actually armless; there seems to be an awkwardness to the way she does things with her feet. Also the original clip was called "Armless CGI". But the CGI removal of her arms does seem to be well done.

Solved!

It turns out the movie is called Brutti E Cattivi (which translates as Ugly Nasty People), made in Italy in 2017. The armless woman is played by Sara Serraiocco. Besides the trailer at IMDb, there are also some YouTube clips available: first one, second one. There is also a "backstage" clip and an interview with the lead actress.

Thanks to Deviant Artist downtown21 for the answer.
